Grab a cup of coffee, network with your peers and visit our sponsors!
- 11:00 – 11:15 a.m. Welcome & Introductions
- 11:15 – 11:45 a.m. Fireside Chat: Employer Expectations of Value in a Pandemic-Adaptive World
Elizabeth Mitchell, president and CEO of the Pacific Business Group on Health, will join ACHP senior advisor George Isham in conversation about what employers expect from health plans as they address the impacts of COVID-19 on their businesses. They will explore priorities for recovery and opportunities to accelerate innovation that leads to better health, higher productivity of the workforce and more effective cost management.
Elizabeth Mitchell, Pacific Business Group on Health
George Isham, M.D., ACHP Senior Advisor
- 11:45 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. Break
- 12:00 – 12:45 p.m. Building Trust in an Age of Disruption: ABIM Foundation Building Trust Initiative
Polls show that trust in the U.S. health care system is eroding. The current COVID-19 pandemic, economic recession and increased activism around racial injustice further underscores the importance of fostering strong community partnerships to improve health. ACHP has joined ABIM Foundation’s multi-stakeholder Building Trust initiative to elevate the importance of trust as an essential organizing principle to guide operations and improvements in health care. Join us for a panel discussion featuring ACHP member leaders actively working together with community leaders to promote health and health equity. Moderated by ABIM Foundation’s Daniel Wolfson, lead for the Building Trust Initiative.

Panelists: Ben Barner, PharmD, Fallon Health

Scott Bohon, M.D., SSM Health
Julia Joseph-DiCaprio, M.D., UCare

Election 2020: Impacts on Community Health Plans

Attendees will learn about the impacts of the historic 2020 election on community health plans.

Matt DoBias, ACHP

Ensuring Equitable Access to COVID-19 Vaccines

The global race toward a COVID-19 vaccine continues. In the meantime, how do health organizations help ensure that the approved vaccines are distributed equitably? Hear recommendations from the recently completed report by the National Academies on the consensus study to assist policymakers in the U.S. and global health communities in planning for equitable allocation of vaccines against COVID-19.

Reed Tuckson, M.D., Tuckson Health Connections, LLC

1:30 – 1:45 p.m.

Break

1:45 – 2:30 p.m.

Innovations in Telebehavioral Health

Telehealth use has exploded during the COVID-19 pandemic. ACHP plans will share how they have leveraged telehealth during the pandemic to support members with behavioral health needs. They will also discuss how the COVID-19 pandemic has changed the way people view mental health; their top advocacy issues related to telebehavioral health; insights into the “new normal” for telebehavioral health; and more.

Panelists: Anne Fernandez, M.D., CDPHP

Mike Franz, M.D., PacificSource Health Plans

Kanchana Madhavan, M.D., Health Alliance Plan

Carl Rorie Alexandrov, CDPHP

- Deep Dive on Health Policy Efforts at ACHP
With a shift in power and new players entering the arena in Washington, DC in 2021, ACHP's policy and advocacy team is well prepared and ready to explain the impact on ACHP members and health care. Learn how the results of the 2020 election will impact legislative and regulatory priorities and the practical implications on ACHP members. Using Health Care 2030: the ACHP Roadmap to Reform as the guide, the team will highlight our advocacy on modernizing policies around value-based care, improving consumerism across health plans and providers and understanding how social needs intersect with civic-minded priorities. ACHP's policy and advocacy team will break through the uncertainty and share critical knowledge providing a head start to a busy and chaotic 2021.
